A larger run of cattle found the market steady to lower prices compared to last week. The cattle that were long weaned with quality condition and shots were selling fully especially on the ones weighing 650 lbs. and down. Heavier feeder cattle and unweaned calves sold on a lower trend especially on the cattle carrying extra flesh. Cull cows and bulls sold $5 lower on a large offering.

For our special cown sale held Wed. Nov. 12 fall pairs were finding a very good demand with ages, calf size and quality being a deciding factor. Bred hfs and young bred cows were also finding good interest
